

PRESIDENT BUSH: PROTECT SOCIAL SECURITY.

HELP CURE ABORTION.

MR. PRESIDENT: Abortion is a plague. It harms everything it touches. Women, children, families – even institutions like Social Security.

Since 1973, over 50,000,000 babies have been killed in the womb. If we had protected their right to life then, Social Security wouldn't need our protection now.

Every year, over $300,000,000 in taxpayer funds is doled out to Planned Parenthood and others who make a living by killing babies. Until that evil is ended, there will never be enough money to protect Social Security from disaster.

Call President Bush at 1-202-456-1111 and tell him that if he really cares about Social Security he should help cure abortion.
